Linear

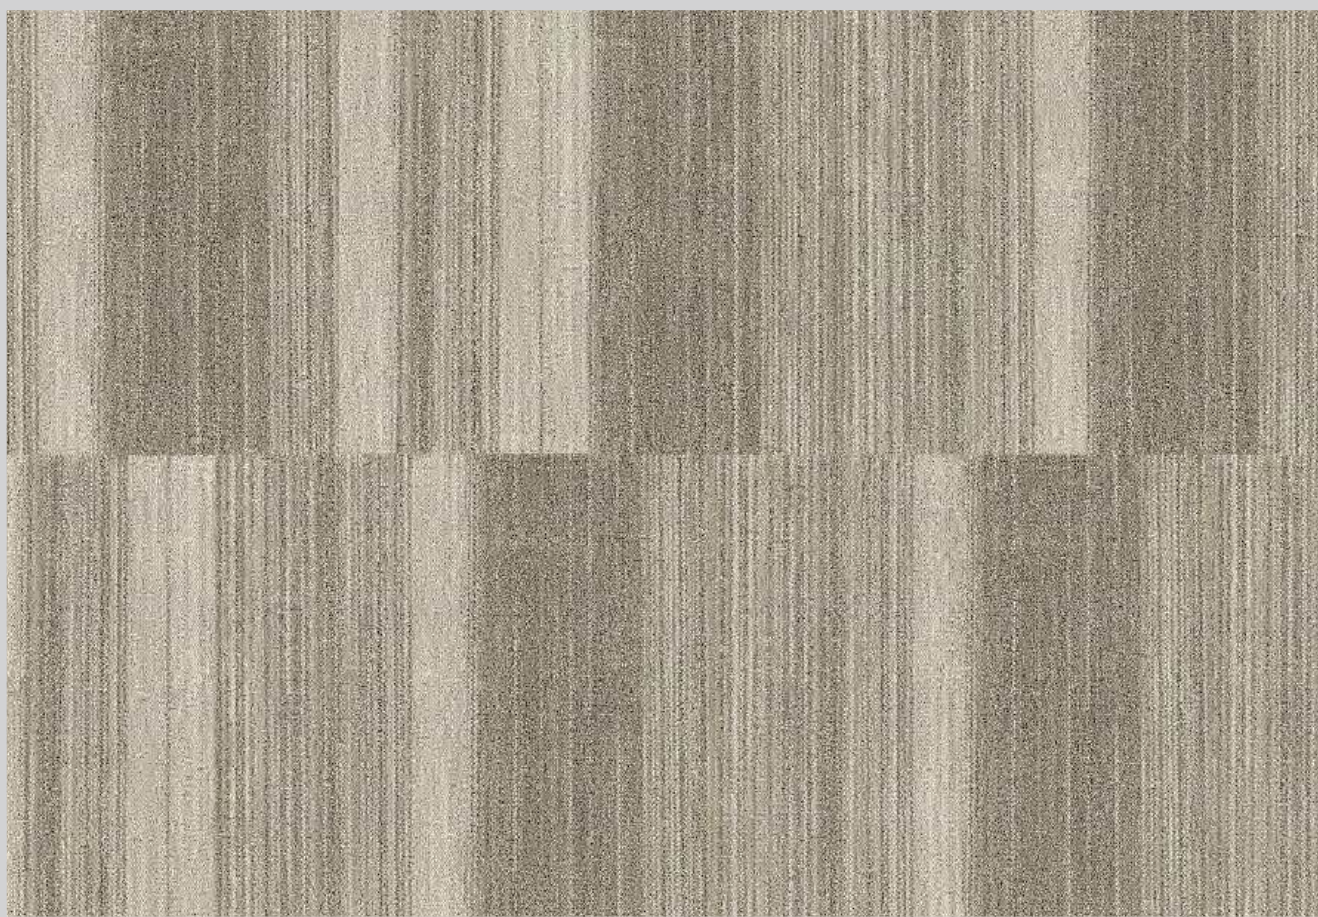

Line is the simplest and most complex art in the world.

Range

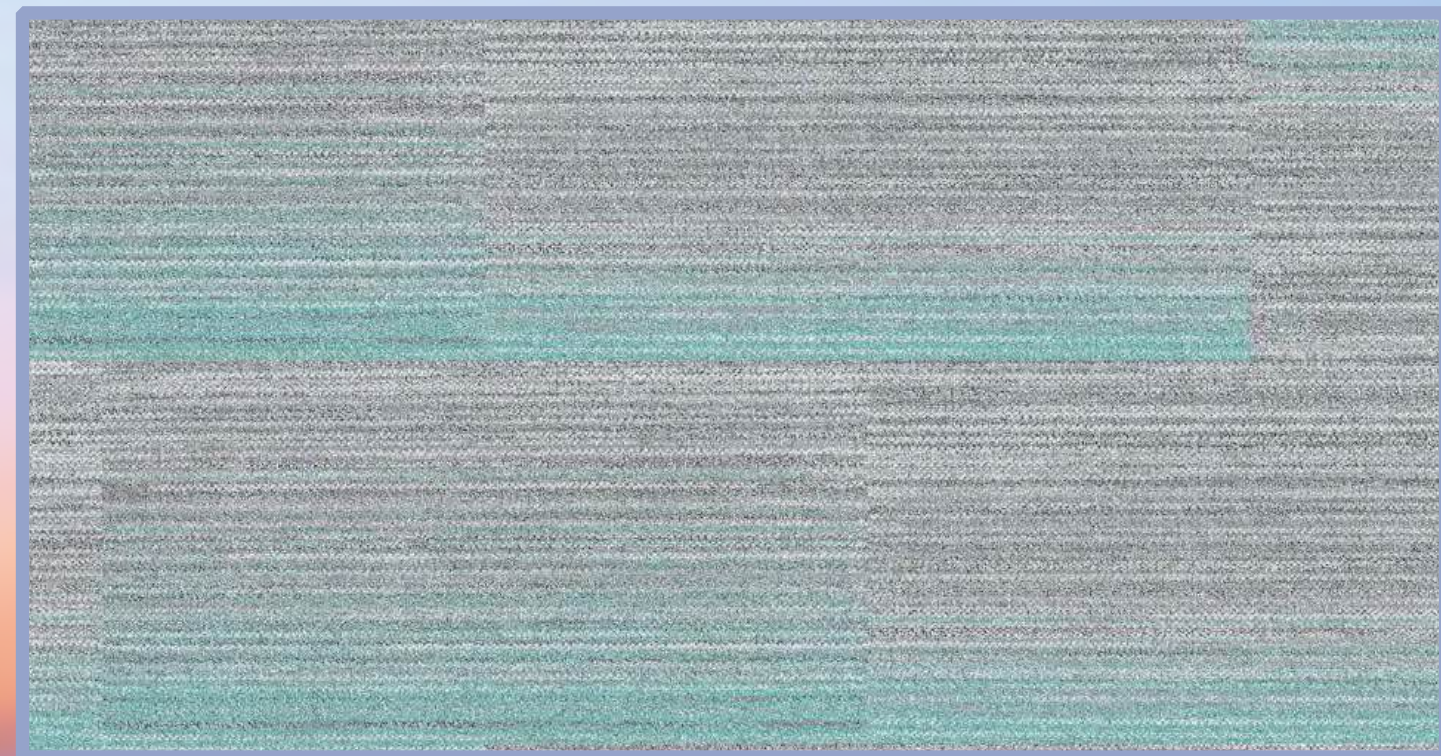

Distance is the other direction of vision, keeping distance also leaves a little blank to each other, making the communication more light as water but never finished. The loss of the barrier of distance, people's reverence for beauty will be gone.

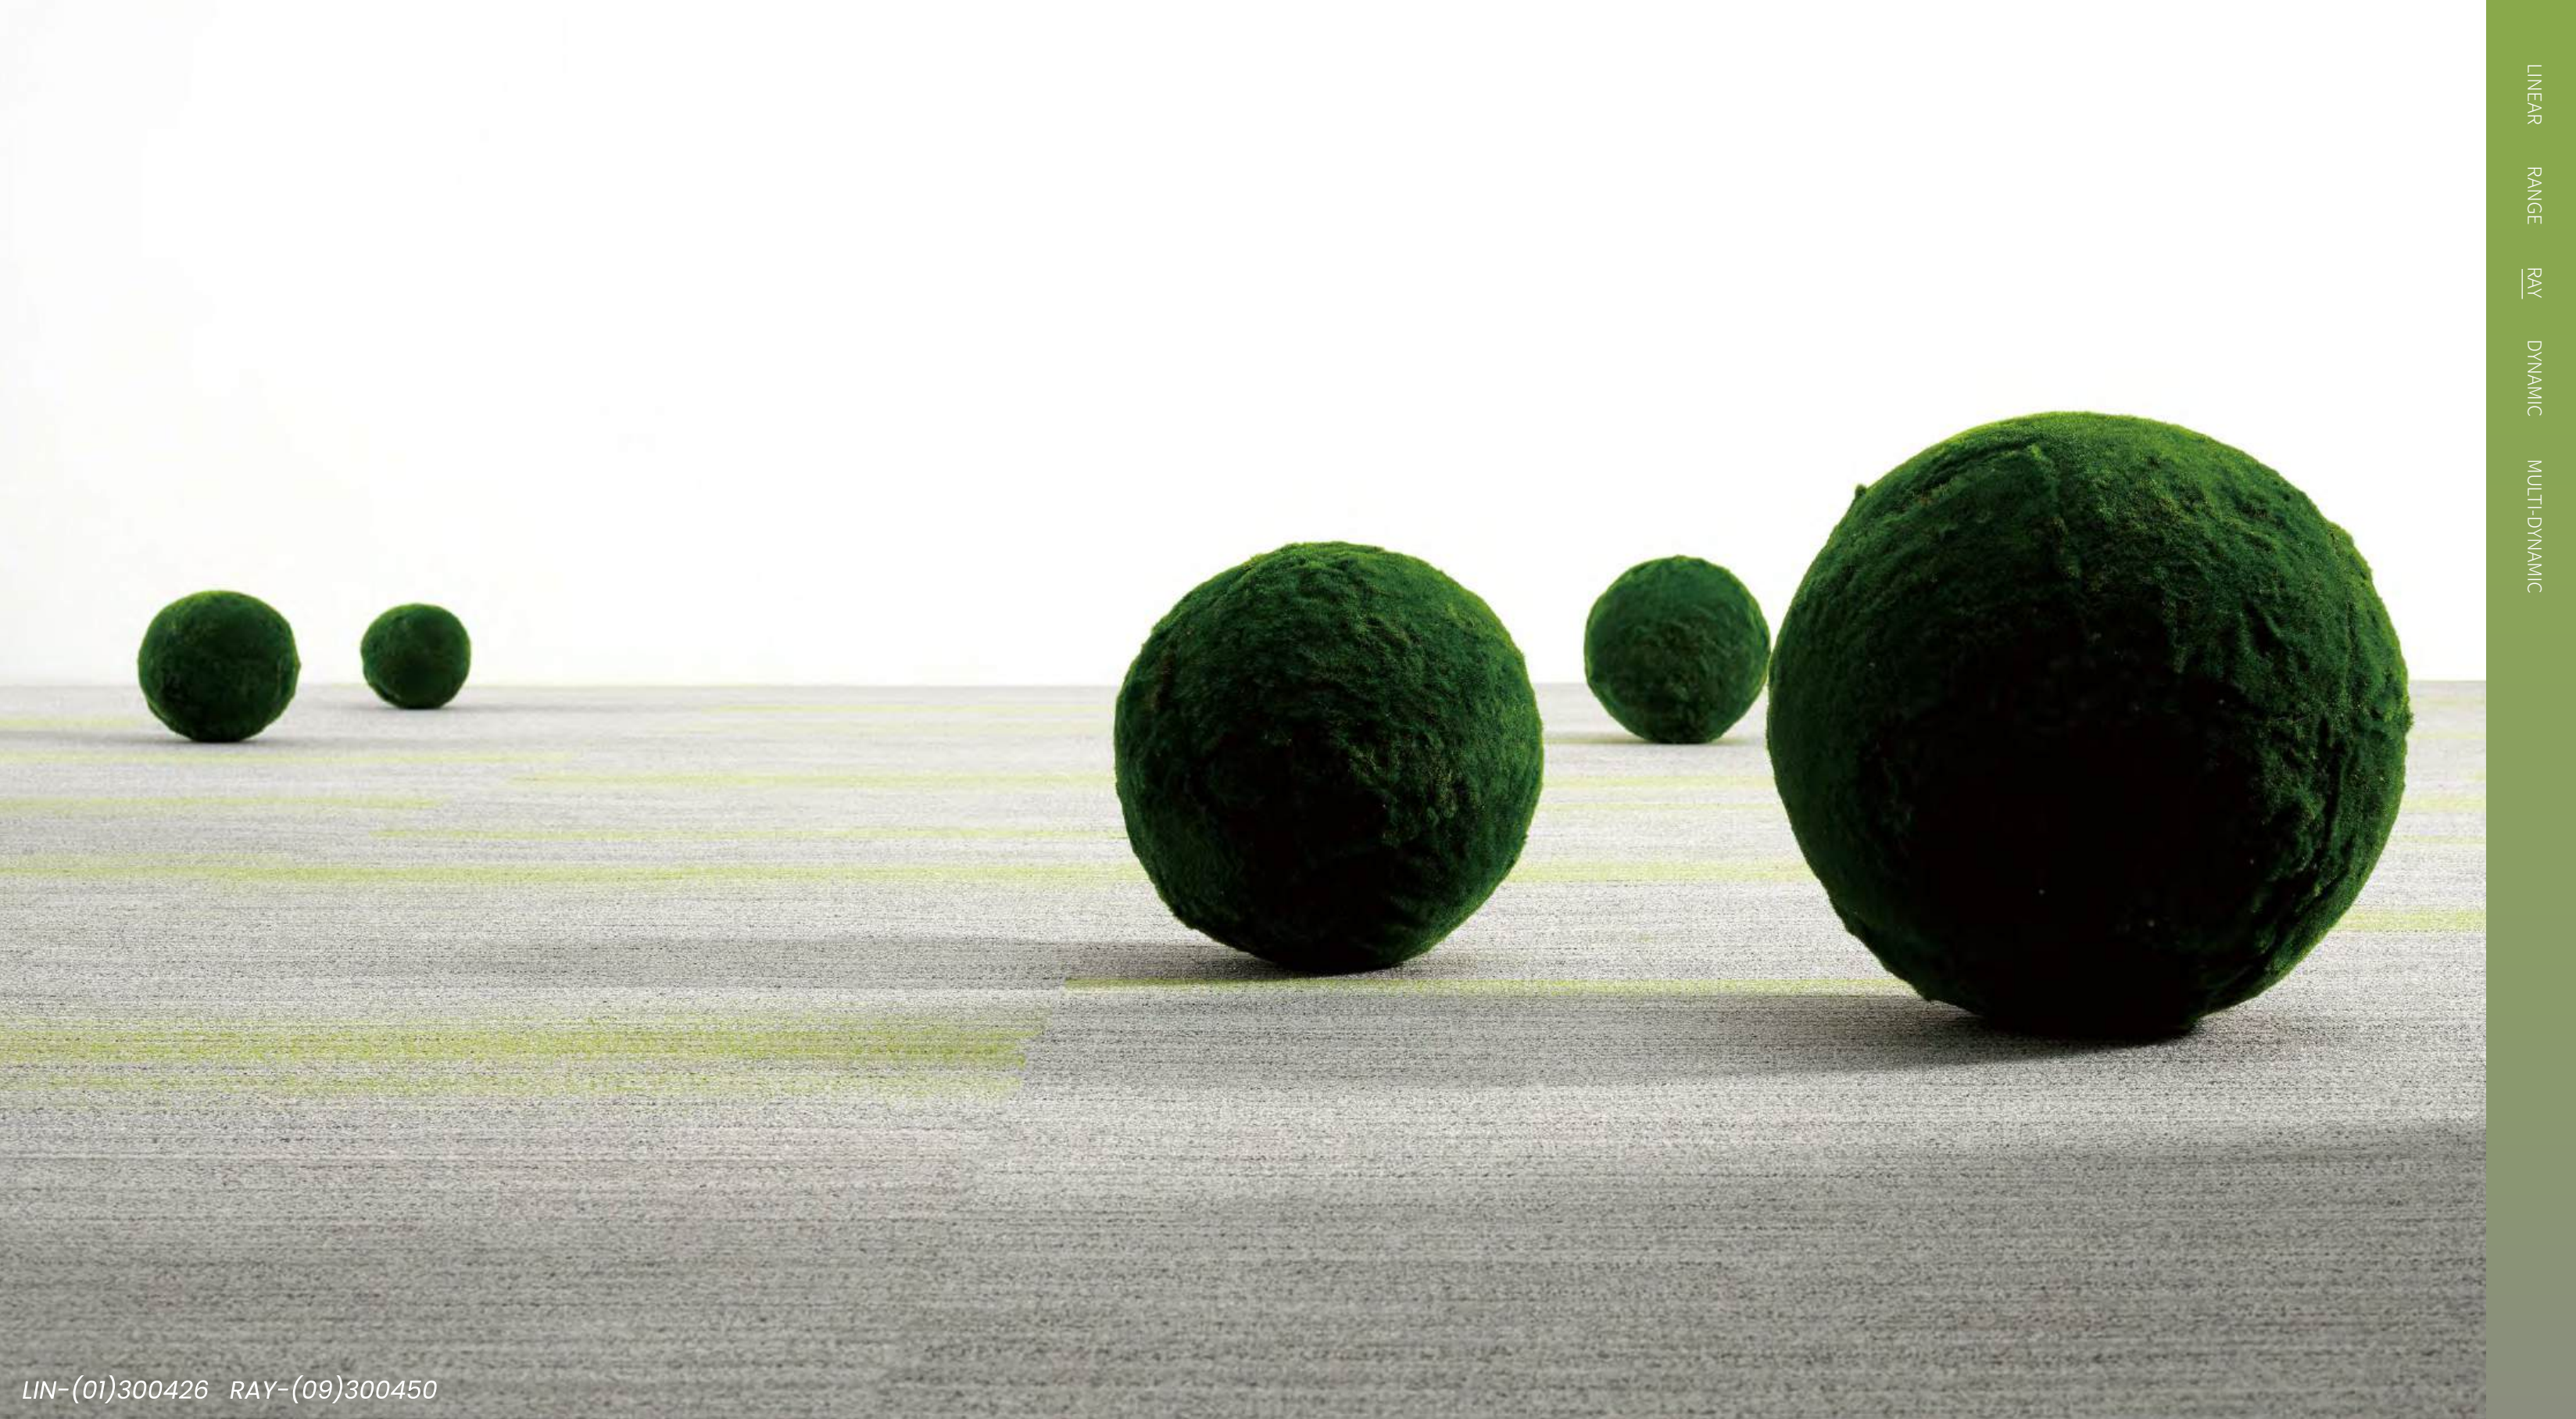

Ray

Existence is like a rushing river, and things are in a constant state of change.

Dynamic

Everything in the world is always changing, just like the grass from sprouting to withering, from bright green to golden yellow.

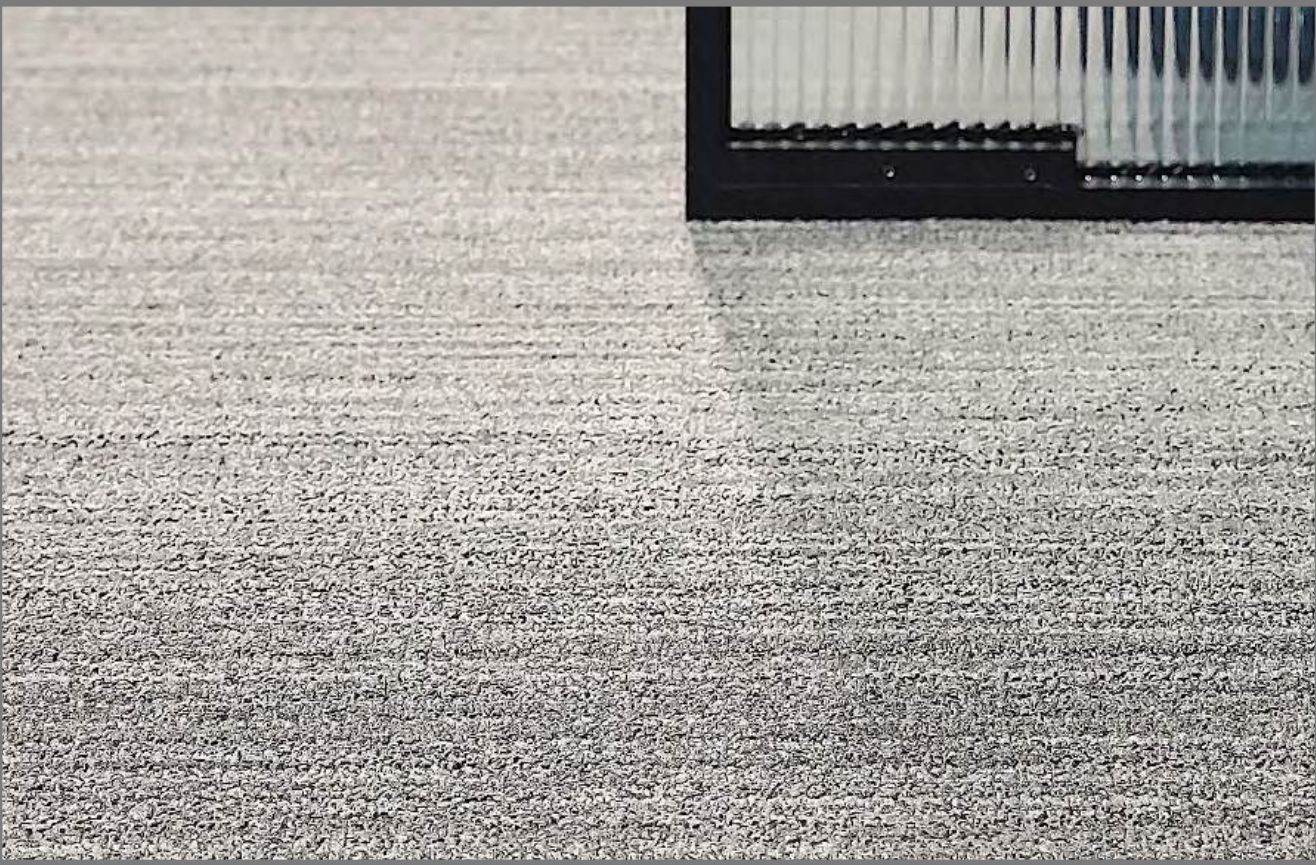

Multi - Dynamic

The world is beautiful because it is constantly changing, and we find beauty in the spinning windmills, the flowing evening sun, the hazy fog, and the grass swaying with the wind.
